MYSTERY SOLVED

After Much Speculation Cause of Unusual Mirth is Found.

Rehearsal of Auburn Park Council Minstrel Show Engenders Keen Interest.

While we were soliciting the advertising for this issue of the paper we were somewhat mystified as to the cause of the smiles and chuckles of many of the people we called on, but finally made inquiry and found out the reason.

It seems that these people had seen the rehearsal of the Big Minstrel Show to be given by Auburn Park Council K. of C. at Cosmopolitan Hall, on Wednesday and Friday evenings of this week.

If the rehearsal is good enough to cause our staid citizens to burst out in laughter as they think of some joke they heard, we ask what will the finished show be like? If you want to find out and at the same time enjoy one of the biggest amusement treats ever seen in these parts, we advise you to come—don't fail, or you'll regret it

"Go to Church," Slogan on Dry New Year Eve

The ministers of Chicago yesterday applauded the order of Mayor Thompson and Chief of Police Healey to keep all bars closed on New Year's Eve, and immediately laid plans to capture Chicago's citizens with a "Go to Church New Year's Eve" campaign. The resolution commending the city's officers was adopted at the meeting of Union Ministers at the First Methodist Church, and the Rev. J. P. Brushingham urged a campaign to attract the would-be celebrants to the churches.

Gun and Key Cost Wm. Mills $200 Fine

"I carried the gun for self-protection and the skeleton key for emergency, so I'd never be locked out of my room," explained William Mills, 529 S. State St. Judge Beckwith failed to understand. "Two hundred dollars and costs," said he.

CHRISTMAS PURCHASES

Now that the Christmas season is rapidly approaching, the annual question arises, "What shall I give and where shall I buy?" Ask yourself the question, "What do I need that cannot be bought in Auburn Park?" Why do you go down town into the crowded stores when the identical article you want can be purchased in your vicinity? How many little cards, seals, and all kinds of standard brands cannot be bought at the many little stores that are striving for existence?

A decrease in crime of 22 per cent since the establishment of the "flying squads" in the police department is noted in the weekly report of Secretary William Luthardt. More than 300 suspicious characters were rounded up. The squads were established by First Deputy Schuettler, who is acting chief while Superintendent Healey is on his six weeks' vacation.

Labor to Ask Wilson to Seek Xmas Truce

New York, Dec 2 —Secretary Ernest Bohm of the Central Federated Union today issued a general appeal to organized labor to urge on President Wilson steps for an armistice between the warring nations of Europe.

The call will go to 2,000,000 members of the American Federation of Labor, 400,000 members of railway brotherhoods, and 3,000,000 members of the Farmers' Unions, among others.

It follows the decision of the Central Federated Union to urge an armistice before Christmas in order to pave the way for peace negotiations.

STUDY THESE FIGURES

In 1915 there were 5,863 cases of diphtheria reported in Chicago with 678 deaths. These cases and deaths of this one disease cost the people of Chicago $3,915,054.00, or an average cost per ward of $111,858.00. Much of this costly sickness and suffering, due to this particular disease, could have been prevented, if only the parents had been intelligently careful in the care of their children.

Take for example, another disease common to child life, that of measles, which is usually regarded as a minor ailment. In fact many parents make the mistake of deliberately exposing their children to this disease in order that "they may have it over with." Last year there were 18,964 cases of measles in Chicago with 236 deaths. And these measles cases and deaths cost the parents of those measles cases, $1,675,423.00, or an average ward cost of $47,869.00. So it is easy to see that it pays to avoid contagion of every kind. It pays in dollars and cents to heed the warnings and advice of the Department of Health

Then there is scarlet fever. Let us see how big a money burden it laid on the people of Chicago. Last year there were 3,366 cases with 77 deaths —really a low mortality rate, but for all that, the total cost for the year of this disease was $978,830.00, with an average ward cost of $27,966.00. Pity that this money, totaling $6,569,207.00 for the three diseases named, could not have been saved The facts are, much of it might have been saved, had only the people given their best co-operation to the health officers in their efforts to control the communicable diseases and thus to prevent needless sickness, suffering and deaths.

It is generally conceded that habits are hard to break. This is why stress is laid by teachers of the young on the importance of forming right habits in early life. It is taken for granted that the child trained in the ways it should go will not depart from them in later years.

Among the things that should be impressed early upon young and growing minds is the habit of neatness and orderliness. Slovenly habits mean waste, inefficiency and carelessness. Slovenly habits are expensive in many ways. Especially is this true when applied to conditions affecting community comfort and safety. Here is where carelessness, thoughtlessness and slovenliness, taken in their cumulative effects, made for ugliness and danger.

One of the most prominent of the weekly publications in the country, discussing community conditions from the standpoints of beauty and safety, says that the litter habit is a national characteristic. People will look carefully after front yards and lawns and throw their litter and waste in the alley or the rear of their premises, and are utterly indifferent as to either appearances or consequences. This is why in every town or city, and in almost every community of the same, we find places that could be called "swell fronts and swill backs."

During the Winter months, too, people are inclined to permit the accumulations of waste and rubbish on their premises that they would not do during the warm weather months. This is why we have our Spring clean-up campaigns It means, when you think about it a little, we have been so dirty and slovenly and careless in our habits all Winter long, that when Spring comes, largely as a matter of self-defense against sickness and disease, we proceed to clean up.

The Spring clean up is a fine thing; but let us be clean all Winter and we will not be so dirty next Spring and neither will we have to work so hard to make our city clean and to keep it that way all the time.

Auburn Park Council Knights of Columbus are again coming out in splendor, extensive preparations having been made for a Minstel Carnival and Dance at the Cosmopolitan Hall, 79th and Halsted, Wednesday and Friday evenings, Dec. 6th and 8th.

The cast is composed of some of the best talent in Augurn Park as well as a number of shining lights of the vaudeville circuits, among them being Geo. W. Alcorn, late of Lew Dockstader's Minstrels; Sam Kolkebeck of the team of two Sams, for years connected with Geo. Primrose troupe; Owen Murphy of the Music publishers; John Everett, one of the members of Geo. M. Cohan's companies; McGrath-Kenny - Corrigan - Corcoran quartette, and a number of others which lack of space will not permit us to mention. The show is being staged under the direction of Hugh F. Kenny, a man who needs no introduction, he being one of the most prominent young men in Auburn Park.

Mr. Kenny, assisted by his able committee, have spared no time or expense in making this event one of the most elaborate as well as the grandest affairs ever given in Auburn Park.

The curtain will go up at 8:30 sharp and the show will last to about 10:30, and immediately after the show those desiring may dance the balance of the evening to the music of Carey's famous Syncopated Band.

Aftermath

A thousand ways I miss you,—
Miss the smile within your eyes,
The clothes you left, the things you touched
Are old pain in disguise.
I cannot live without you
Yet I am not fit to die;
My folly coldly mocks at me
And coldly asks me "Why?"
And I can only answer
That I had not meant to sin,
And when I tried to free myself
I sunk the deeper in,
So soon, I ceased to struggle,
Yet the while I knew,—I knew
That my sin but took me further
From happiness and you.

Manufacturer's Sample Sale

We have purchased the entire stock of Samples of the Enterprise Parlor Furniture Co., 2321 West Huron Street, at the most ridiculous prices ever heard of. They had to clear their sample floor at once; we made them a spot cash offer and they accepted it. Their line consists of 3-piece Parlor Suits in Oak, Mahogany and Walnut; Davenports; odd Rockers, and Chairs, upholstered in Leather, Tapestry and Velour. We were very lucky to get this stock just before the Holidays—all the goods are now on exhibition in all our stores with the original Enterprise tags on. We are not going to change the price tags. All the goods will be sold at manufacturers price. Don't delay, but come at once to any of our stores. We guarantee to save you from 35 to 50 per cent of your money.
